I want to talk about ~~people's~~ online and in-store shopping. The diagram shows online versus in-store purchasing. We can see whether most of people use online or in store purchasing, also we can see different segments like: computers and electronics, Sport and beauty, clothes and footwear etc. We can see in comparison that most of all like to buy books, movies, music and games online ~~then~~ more than in-store. Also we can see that most of all like to buy a grocery in-store. These two comparisons ~~to~~ have most more difference between online and in-store purchasing than others. We also have comparisons that differ not much, like health and beauty or clothes and footwear ~~and~~ etc. These ~~?~~ have not much difference between each other. I suppose that books, movies, music, games ~~and~~ ~~grocery~~ people ~~like~~ to buy online, because there ~~is~~ no need to go to store, because you don't need to check it, see it, listen to it or any thing else, you ~~is~~ ~~not~~ need to check it. I ~~also~~ prefer to shop online more than in-shop, because it is convenient to buy something ~~other~~. I like to buy more games, computers and clothes, I don't often buy something else. In conclusion I can say that in this century most of categories of products on something else you can easily
